The parties have reviewed the recently-filed Fourth Amended Complaint from the underlying state court case, and have conferred. The parties jointly believe that the allegations in the Fourth Amended Complaint are such that the arguments in the motions for partial summary judgment previously filed in this case are outdated and that the motions for partial summary judgment pending in this case should be withdrawn. Further review and analysis of the Fourth Amended Complaint is necessary before a final decision can be made as to whether further motions will be filed regarding the duty to defend.
